

WON THE CHAMPIONSHIP

THE PIRATES OF THE MARY JANE FAILED TO SHOW UP.

Nine to Nothing Was the Score—A Good Game Played Between Picked Nines. Richmond Will Take a Trip.

The phantom crew of the Mary Jane failed to materialize at West End Park yesterday afternoon, and at the appointed hour Tannehill tossed three good ones over the plate to Foster, who held on to them, and Mr. Boyce, who was ready and willing to umpire the game, pronounced the Champions the winners by a score of 1 to 0.

GOOD CROWD THERE.

Probably 500 people were here to see the Champions win the Virginia pennant for another season. To them they were disappointed, the Norfolk team did not show up would be putting it mild. The audience were told they could have their money refunded at the gate, but as all the receipts would have gone to the "boys" nobody wanted his money back, nor the whole affair was changed into a kilification party, and Captain Wells decided to make up two scrub teams for the amusement of the audience. About 60 of the 500 spectators offered their services, but as only five were needed it took considerable time to make a selection. When the two teams were chosen and lined up, as given in the table below, a very good game of six innings was played.

EXIT VIRGINIA LEAGUE.

This closes the Virginia League season of 1896, and with the loss of the Virginia League next year the great Atlantic League will be represented here by the Richmond, and the old-time enthusiasm will be awakened. Captain Wells has signed a contract to be with us next season, and he will have many of the old favorites with him. Pender, Berte, Shelta, Cain, Groves, Foster, Tannehill and Roland will doubtless show up in line next spring, and the rosters will greet them as of yore.

SOUTHERN TRIP.

Captain Wells will take his entire team for a southern trip, leaving here Thursday night, and opening in Knoxville on Saturday, where they will play five games. The subscribers to the pennant fund are requested to leave the amount of their subscriptions to the appointed treasurer, Mr. Hugh Cardoso, to-day or tomorrow, so the players will receive the full amount before going on their southern tour.

The Times wishes each of the players a prosperous trip, and trust they may all be with us again next season.

THE SECRETARY'S REPORT.

Secretary James Branch, of New York, read a detailed report in which he said:

"The close of the year 1896 shows the largest membership in the history of this association. In 1895 this association had 1800 members. The records show that during the last eight years this association has a gross average annual loss of two hundred members. In the past year, however, we have only lost forty-seven members, having gained fifty-eight of the one hundred and five who were dropped from December 1st, according to article eight of the constitution. A large proportion of the forty-seven lost members either assigned or liquidated."

REMARKS OF PRESIDENT PULLEN ON THE MONEY QUESTION.

Financial Chaos Would Follow the Elimination of Banking Facilities—Declaration of Principles—Report.

ST LOUIS, MO., September 22.—The twenty-second annual convention of the American Bankers' Association was called to order in the Olympic Theatre at 10:30 o'clock this morning by President E. H. Pulley, of the National Bank of the Republic, New York. About 255 delegates are in attendance, representing nearly all of the principal banking institutions in the Middle and Eastern States. The South and West have but few representatives.

The Republicans of Richmond were very much in evidence last night, for it was the date fixed for the holding of precinct meetings for the purpose of electing delegates to the city convention, which assembles to-night at the Old City Hall for the purpose of electing thirty-one delegates and fifteen alternates to the district convention which meets at Hanover Courthouse to-morrow morning. The candidates for Congress from this district and the members of the State Committee.

The Republican voters were out in force, and the two factions, that still exist in the city, put their best foot forward to win out.

According to Mr. Edgar Allan everything is lovely so far as his side of the controversy is concerned. "The opposition made little impression on the regular organization," said he to a Times man, "notwithstanding their desperate efforts to overturn that organization, we have at least four-fifths of the delegates."

Judge Waddill had nothing to say except that he was entirely satisfied with the result.

THE MONEY QUESTION.

In the course of his address President Pulley, referring to the money question, said:

"The Big Events at Gravesend Track—A Jockey Suspected for Bad Riding.

GRAVESEND, Sept. 22.—The gloomy weather and rain of the early part of the day kept down the attendance this afternoon. The track was dead. The big races were the Youthful stakes of $4,500 at five and a half furlongs, and the All-American stakes of $2,000, five and a half furlongs. The former was suspended by the stewards for the balance of the meeting for his bad ride.
